DEDUCTION MATRIX

NOTES:

1. Offenders sentenced to death or Life Without Parole (LWOP) are not subject to the savings deduction. Additionally, offenders whose earliest possible release date is beyond life expectancy and who have been approved via the Process to Request an Exemption to Mandatory Savings (Attachment 5) are not subject to the savings deduction.
2. For Workers' Compensation Benefits - paid pursuant to RCW 51.32.080 only - Debt and Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) will only collect after the Legal Financial Obligation (LFO) has been paid in full, or the Department's authority to collect has expired.
3. Cost of Incarceration (COI) will only collect after the child support obligation (i.e., Division of Child Support) has been paid in full.
4. Offenders must provide their tribe with DOC 07-011 Request for Information Regarding Tribal Agency Disbursement of Funds. The tribe must submit the completed form and either reference the law or identify the source of funds to qualify as exempt from deductions.
5. Funeral/deathbed visits will be posted to the offender's savings subaccount exempt from deductions, then a withdrawal will be made to reimburse the costs of the escorted leave/furlough.
6. Vendor refunds are only exempt when the purchase originated from the offender's trust account.
7. Personal property tort claims are only exempt when the purchase originated from the offender's trust account. Personal injury or personal restraint tort claims awarded are subject to full deductions.
